

SUSPENSION AND TERMINATION

SUSPENSION AND TERMINATION OF HALAL CERTIFICATION OR WITHDRAWAL OF CERTIFICATION

The client that has obtained a halal certificate may be suspended or terminated due to the following actions:

- ⦿ Certified client has persistently failed to meet the requirements of certification or to abide by the rules for certification.
- ⦿ Improper or Misleading use of the Halal Australia certificate or mark.
- ⦿ Client makes a voluntary formal request to withdraw certification.
- ⦿ Major non-conformance(s) or effective corrective action not implemented within a specified time period.
- ⦿ Client is unable or unwilling to ensure conformance to revisions of halal certification requirements once advised by Halal Australia.
- ⦿ Client fails to meet financial obligations to Halal Australia.
- ⦿ Client does not allow audit access as required by Halal Australia, or where the client is the cause of a delay in the audit taking place.
- ⦿ Existence of numerous complaints made by second- or third-party, which indicate that Halal Australia's halal certification requirements are not being maintained.
- ⦿ Infringement by the certified client of any contractual conditions between the certified client and Halal Australia.
